The prizes were awarded as follows: 1st ladies, Miss Alice Richardson, men's George Burns, 2nd prize ladies Mrs. Geo. Burns and 2nd prize men's Cornie Reimer. Anderson of Burnside and Mr. Markham of Mayton were the capable judges for the evening. A collection was taken to defray expenses and the balance left was turned over to the hall. Too Late!

With the memory of the theatre, holocaust, in which some scores of little children were the victims, still fresh in their minds, the citizens of Montreal are passing through another tragedy, an epidemic of typhoid fever which, at the time of writing, has afflicted over 1,500 people and resulted in over forty deaths.

The taking of proper precautions and the provision of necessary safeguards would have saved the people of Montreal from the sorrows of the theatre fire, and, in like manner, the present typhoid epidemic could easily have been prevented.

It is the same old story over and over again of locking the stable door after the horse has been stolen, and one is sometimes inclined to question whether human beings are, after all, so much superior in intelligence to animals. In the case of animals it is noticeable that once bitten they are twice shy, but humans go on repeating the same blunder time after time and pay large penalties in sorrow, suffering and loss.

Following the Montreal theatre fire an investigation was made into every theatre and hall of public assembly in the city to ascertain whether they were in a condition safeguarding the lives of those attending them. Practically all of them were found deficient in some respects; some were condemned and closed up. It should not have required a great catastrophe and the loss of many lives to lead civic officials to discharge a duty which should be receiving their attention all the time.

And now, when it is too late, investigation has established that the typhoid outbreak is the result of impure milk supplied to citizens. One man kills another and he has to face a trial for murder or manslaughter. In Montreal one thousand and more are lying on sick beds in homes and hospitals fighting for life, and more than two score are dead, all the result of criminal negligence.

In the case of this typhoid outbreak there is double neglect on the part of the health authorities. In the first place it was their sworn duty to safeguard the health of all citizens through the assurance of a supply of pure milk. That is one of the duties of a civic health department, and for the discharge of which they are paid salaries out of the taxes of the ratepayers. In the second place, medical science has placed in their hands the means of preventing typhoid, of rendering people immune from its ravages. Now that the epidemic is raging energetic steps are being taken to inoculate tens of thousands of citizens, when, in the case of many, it is everlastingly too late.

Not only so, but these emergency measures cost many times as much in effort and money as the day to day carrying on of this all important work would cost in the regular work of health administration. Why is it that municipal councils insist they cannot afford to expend money to protect the health and lives of their people, and then expend many times the required amount in a frantic endeavor to overcome the evil which through their shortsightedness has resulted?

And let not other places adopt a "holier than thou" attitude toward Montreal; rather let them examine their own municipal households. It is a well established fact that smallpox, diphtheria and typhoid fever can be absolutely prevented and banished from our midst. These frightful diseases can be rendered as extinct as the dodo, leprosy or yellow fever. Yet they continue to stalk through the land claiming their thousands of victims every year. Why? Because of what amounts to criminal negligence on the part of health officials and people generally.

Our Western prairie provinces pride themselves in their work for the promotion of health, but they still have a long way to travel in the direction of the eradication of preventable disease. There is much educational work yet to be done, and it is sincerely to be hoped that provincial health departments, municipal councils and health officers, all doctors, and every organization interested in the health, happiness and well-being of the people will throw themselves unreservedly into the campaigns now in progress at many points under the "Seymour Plan" for the wiping out of preventable disease. The community which does not engage in this warfare stamps itself as hopelessly backward, and indifferent to the best interests and highest welfare of its people.

Canada's Certain Destiny

Viscount Willingdon Says Dominion to be One of the Great Nationalities of the World

Canada's certain destiny is to be one of the great nationalities of the world, a member of the British Commonwealth of Nations, but free and independent in its administrative life, Viscount Willingdon declared in an address before the Canadian Club at Victoria.

The Governor General outlined his vision of the Empire, "an empire the like of which the world has never seen, an empire which, whatever pessimists may say, it is my firm belief that the more independent and free the various parts become in matters of administration the closer will be the ties of loyalty that bind them to the throne."

Britain, he said, is still full of life and vigor despite the troubles of post-war years.

Found Millions But Received No Reward

British Officer Left Sick Bed to Locate Wreck of Laurotic

No Admiralty recognition has come to Commander Geoffrey Unsworth, D.S.O., D.S.C., R.N.R., who located the "Laurotic," from which $25,000,000 in bullion has been salvaged. Commander Unsworth, who is now in charge of a steamer trading between Grimsby and the Continent, was a pilot in Irish waters and mine clearance officer of the Lough Swilly flotilla when the "Laurotic" struck.

He saved the ship's complement, but suffered so much from exposure that he was admitted to Londonderry Hospital. Admiralty expeditions failing to locate the treasure-laden vessel, Commander Unsworth insisted on leaving his sick bed to take part in the search. His knowledge of Irish waters enabled him to discover the wreck and buoy the spot, making possible the recent salvage operations, for which honors and reward have been generously bestowed.

The Admiralty apparently regard the commander's part as all in the day's work, for so far it has gone without recognition.

Externally or Internally, it is Good. When applied externally by brisk rubbing, Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil opens the pores and penetrates the tissue, touching the seat of the trouble and immediately affording relief. Administered internally, it will still the irritation in the throat which induces coughing and will relieve affections of the bronchial tubes and respiratory organs. Try it and be convinced.

Documents Are Guarded In Westminster Abbey

Some Historical Papers Date Back to Eighth Century

The Muniment Room at Westminster Abbey contains a collection of historical documents that probably has no counterpart the world over. Closely guarded in locked, iron-bound chests, the papers kept there number over 100,000, and some of them date back to the eighth century. These documents are now being prepared and edited for publication, and Dr. Scott, the librarian of the British Museum, is making a careful record of 57,000 of the more important.

FOREIGNERS ARE FLEEING FROM INTERIOR CHINA

Shanghai.—With another general strike in the offing and with Shanghai the centre of a continued flight of foreigners from the interior, the defence authorities here made further preparations to protect the international settlement.

A barbed wire barrier now is being constructed along the entire length of the Avenue Edward VII. between the French concession and the international settlement. The Suffolk Regiment also was assigned to guard the offices of the cable companies situated in the Avenue.

The date of the new general strike, which has been decided upon by the general labor union, will be fixed later. There are about 20,000 miscellaneous workers still out from the last strike.

Meanwhile the Japanese naval authorities warned the Cantonese that the Japanese navy will hereafter take drastic steps in the event of unlawful actions by Nationalist soldiers or in the event of firing on Japanese steamers without good cause.

Reports continue of firing on foreign vessels in the Yangtse by Nationalist soldiers on either side of the river. Two British steamers leaving Hankow, which has again become the centre of anti-foreign activities, were fired on. The American destroyer, John D. Ford, which recently came here from Manila, was fired on between Shanghai and Nanking. The destroyer brought its four-inch guns and machine guns into action in reply.

Disquieting reports have been coming from Hankow, scene of anti-foreign disorders some time ago. Advice from a Japanese source in that city said that soldiers in civilian clothes, ruffians and labor pickets were overrunning the city and that the Japanese women and children there will embark on the first available steamer.

Although the great majority of missionaries in the interior of China are now en route for Shanghai, or planning to start soon, about 100 are refusing to leave their posts in the Yangtse Valley, despite the advice of authorities.

Increase In Taxable Value of Property

Statistics Show Figures Higher for Period From 1919 to 1925

Ottawa.—An increase of $1,303,772,886 in the total taxable value of real property in Canada is shown for the year 1925 as compared with 1919, according to a report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

The total value of taxable property in the Dominion was $7,331,785,535 in the year under review as against $6,028,012,649 in 1919.

Personal property, which is only taxed in certain provinces, increased from $52,939,719 in 1919 to $56,452,434 in 1925.

Thrown Out

Ottawa.—The private bills committee of the House of Commons threw out an act to incorporate the "Thousand Islands International Bridge Corporation."

Lower Duty on Livestock

Western Stock Growers Are Asking For Relief

Calgary.—Urging the Dominion to take all available measures to obtain relief from United States duty on livestock entering that country, the Western Stock Growers' Association addressed a resolution to the Federal Government. Another resolution pointed out the necessity for keeping grain and screenings in Canada and prohibiting export of this commodity to the United States. A petition will be submitted to railways asking reduction of rates on horses to an equality with cattle. The Alberta Government was asked for an appropriation for experiments with grazing rotation and rehabilitation of native grasses. Dr. S. F. Tolmie told the convention that farmers are "losing ten million dollars a year marketing beef of poor quality," and urged establishment of beef grading to better this condition.

Attained Terrific Speed

Major Segrave Drives Car 203 Miles Per Hour

New York.—Major Segrave's record of 203.7298 miles an hour at Dayton Beach marked the nearest approach to the highest speed man has attained, 278 miles an hour, in an airplane.

This air record was set by Florentin Bonnet, of France, in December, 1924. The fastest mark by rail was that set by an engine in a five mile run from Fleming to Jacksonville, Fla., in 1901, by attaining an average of 120 miles an hour.

On the water, Miss Detroit, in 1920, at Lake George, set a record of 77.85 miles an hour for speed boats, while on the Solent, England, the Maple Leaf II. made 59 miles an hour in 1921.

The record of the Cunard liner, Mauretania is 27.04 knots, while that of the Leviathan is 23.04.

Pensions Act

No Further Amendments to Be Made to the Present Act

Ottawa.—"The Government does not intend to extend the present provisions of the pension act by further amendments this year," stated Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Health and Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, in the House.

The present pension legislation, said Dr. King, provides pensions for all disabilities "attributed to or incurred during military service," and for "disabilities resulting from injury or disease or the aggravation thereof incurred during military service." No ex-soldier who was so disabled was denied a pension, but responsibility could not be accepted for those whose disabilities were not related to war service.

British Will Protect Colony of Hong Kong

Have No Intention of Diminishing Rights or Authority

Hong Kong.—The British government will give full protection to the colony of Hong Kong and the leased territories on the mainland during the civil warfare in China, according to assurances given by the local secretary of state.

The secretary's communication said the government has no intention of surrendering Hong Kong or abandoning or diminishing in any way British rights or authority in any part of the territories under its administration.

Tallin, Eschenla, has just opened its broadcasting station, and the radio club there already has 500 members.

AMENDMENTS TO GRAIN ACT ARE BEFORE HOUSE

Ottawa.—Amendments to the Canada Grain Act, proposed by the board of grain commissioners, were tabled in the House of Commons, along with correspondence between the Minister of Trade and Commerce and the commission.

On February 5, the minister wrote to the commission asking for suggested amendments. On February 7, Leslie H. Boyd, chief commissioner, replied, setting forth the proposals. He stated that the board believed the provisions of the drafted amendments would give the farmer the same privileges as "the Campbell bill," which was before the Commons last session. The commissioner's proposals, however, defined the conditions under which grain might be delivered to a country point if the farmer desired to take delivery of the same and ship it to any specific elevator or point.

The drafted amendments covered the duties of country elevators. While the present grain act limits liabilities as to weights and grades, the commission's proposal covers these two important points and gives the board power to make regulations covering the method of drawing samples. The board, too, could investigate disputes regarding grades and weights. In his letter, Mr. Boyd states that he believes the proposals to be fair and reasonable to all parties.

Spanish-South American Air Service Planned

Will Be Started If German Government Finances Completion of Airship

Berlin.—Airship service between Spain and South America, starting within 18 months, is predicted by Hugo Eckner, Zeppelin expert, provided the German Government furnishes the remaining 2,000,000 marks necessary for the completion of the airship to be used which is being built in Germany.

Similar agreements are expected to be negotiated with the Argentine and other South American governments. It is planned at first to make a round trip to South America every three weeks, carrying a 15-ton cargo consisting mostly of mails but including some passengers. It is estimated that the flight to South America will require from 75 to 80 hours.

Gain in Employment

Ottawa.—There was a moderate gain in employment at the beginning of March, the upward movement being rather more extensive than in earlier years recorded. The largest increases took place in manufacturing and construction, while logging, mining and trade were seasonally slack.

Matter of Defence Left With Government

Canada Not Bound in Any Way Says Premier King

Ottawa.—"In no way has this Parliament or country been bound by decisions made by the Imperial Conference, last fall," declared Premier W. L. Mackenzie King, in the House of Commons, when he reviewed the reports adopted at the Conference, in London. Referring to the question of defence, Premier King declared that no commitments had been made on behalf of Canada with respect to defence, and no request had been made on behalf of the British Government in the matter. It was for each Dominion, through its own government and parliament, to decide.

"It is for this Parliament to say to what extent Canada will take in all matters pertaining to defence," said the Premier.

Manitoba Liberal Leader

Judge Hugh A. Robson Elected to Succeed Hon. T. C. Norris

Winnipeg.—Judge Hugh A. Robson, K.C., prominent in the public life of the West for many years, is the new leader of the provincial Liberal party. He was elected to succeed Hon. T. C. Norris, who tendered his resignation a year ago, at a party convention held here.

Judge Robson was elected from a slate of several nominees, including Fred C. Hamilton, former president of the provincial Liberal Association. Mr. Norris who is the leader of the Liberal group in the Legislature, was nominated, but withdrew his name.

Judge Robson, who was born in Barrow-in-Furness, England, in 1871, came to Canada in 1882, and is a pioneer resident of Winnipeg.

Death of Sir Charles Tupper

Was One of Canada's Most Distinguished Elder Statesmen

Vancouver.—Hon. Sir Charles Tupper, K.C.M.G., K.C.L.B., died at his home here following an attack of pneumonia which had confined him to his home for nearly two weeks.

Sir Charles, was one of Canada's most distinguished statesmen. He was born in Amherst, N.S., in 1855 the son of the late Right Hon. Sir Charles Tupper at one time prime minister of the Dominion.

Salt For Dyspepsia

Washington.—Common salt is as effective as any other remedy for dyspepsia, according to reports of research at the University of Melbourne, Australia, recently received here. Dr. F. A. Apperly has found that common salt helps certain types of plain dyspepsia.

Betting Bill Defeated

London.—An attempt to introduce a bill in the House of Commons to legalize betting in England was defeated by a vote of 116 to 41.

Trappers Overtake Swift Deer

Many tales have drifted down from the north of how men have overtaken and captured wolves, deer and other swift-footed inhabitants of the woods of Ontario and Quebec. Readers of such have often been skeptical but the above photograph, taken only a short distance from the Canadian Pacific lines in the Laurentian Mountains, proves that such a thing is possible, in the case of deer at least. Heavy snow, as can be seen, accounts for this and in the pictures above several trappers on snowshoes have succeeded in capturing two animals in question. The deer looking placidly into the camera was no doubt caught only after an exhausting chase through the deep drifts. The little doe that seems to be just an animal for the trapper, will doubtless be admired in a short time by thousands of people in some city park. Trappers in the northern sections of Ontario and Quebec have saved many of these young animals from death by freeing them from heavy drifts of snow, and thus keeping them from packs of hungry wolves.

THE EQUALITY OF STATUS BINDING BRITISH EMPIRE

Ottawa.—Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice and chairman of the Imperial Conference committee on treaty-making powers, continued the House debate on the Imperial Conference, Mr. Lapointe was emphatic that the Imperial conference of 1926 has no authority to change one iota of the British North America Act or any constitution of the Empire. What the conference did, Mr. Lapointe exclaimed, was to crystallize "the principle of equality of status, which was already recognized and which was the logical outcome of the development of the various nations. It published a definite, clear and official adherence to that principle. It did that in such a way as to make it the greatest contribution to the permanency of the free association of the nations of the Empire. It is the final and unequivocal acceptance of the principle of unity and liberty, unity preserved and enshrined in the British throne and liberty in all domestic and external activities of the various nations of the commonwealth. It is no longer the case of

"A daughter am I in my mother's house, But a mistress in my own—"

"The family is a family of sisters equal in their rights and activities."

And, concluding his speech, Mr. Lapointe declared, to rounds of Liberal applause, that the principles underlying the pact would illumine the way to peace, progress and nationhood.

Many Claimants to Millions

Dutch Merchant's Fortune Has Drawn Interest for 200 Years

Adelaide, Australia.—A fortune of $500,000,000 which has been accruing at interest for 200 years, is to be subject of issue in the courts, according to claims that are now being filed here.

Edward Webber, merchant prince of Holland in the days when the Dutch flag was supreme in the world of commerce, died in New York leaving an eccentric will, bequeathing an enormous sum to his seventh generation, claimants assert.

The fortune, which has now grown to $500,000,000, may create at least 150 Australian millionaires for more than that number in the city of Adelaide alone claim a share.

The claimants are calling a meeting to discuss the matter.

"Paradise for Two" is the name of the picture to be shown at the Didsbury Opera House on Saturday of this week. It is a comedy-drama about a young American who—but take it in and you'll be delighted with it.

Another of Zane Grey's popular works will be portrayed here in picture form at the Didsbury Opera House on Wednesday next, April 13th. Take your seat early.

The dance held by the Old Timers' Club last (Wednesday) evening was especially noticeable for the sociability and goodfellowship prevailing. There was a good attendance and everyone had a most delightful time. There was good music supplied by local artists, the Clemens and Bellamy orchestra, and it was generally agreed that their efforts to please had been uniformly successful. Not the least of the evenings enjoyment was a very tasty lunch served somewhere about midnight.

by the Motor league. It seems that while Magistrate F. M. Brown, of Saskatoon, holds that the majority ruling of the Alberta supreme court on the point of the law similar to that of Saskatchewan makes clear that the Sunday sale of gasoline is legal. Judge Onseley of the district court of Moose Jaw holds a different view and has convicted men for selling gasoline on the Sabbath. It is not surprising then that the gasoline vendors and motorists of Saskatchewan are seeking the ruling of the supreme court authority of the province in the matter.

Another operation was performed upon Mr. Alfred Speakman, M.P., at Ottawa last week, when a couple of stones were removed from the bladder—the stones being another result of the gravel from which Mr. Speakman has suffered for years. He has had four operations since March, 1926, all of them serious, and Mr. Speakman must have some constitution and grit to stand the drain on his strength. He appears to be improving satisfactorily from the last operation, but it will be a few days before he is out of the hospital. The last word from Mr. Lucas, M.P., to Mrs. Speakman was quite favorable.—Red Deer Advocate.

The Manitoba provincial elections will be held on June 22, it is understood, though no official proclamation has yet been made. Nomination day will probably be June 12. The standing of the parties in the Legislature at present is: Government 28, Liberal 7, Conservative 6, Labor 5, Independent 8, vacancies 2.

Calgary will be the mecca this week for scores of the old 50th boys, who are resident in various parts of the west, for Friday, April 8, is the date of the annual banquet and reunion to be held in the Hudson's Bay Elizabethan rooms.

Rev. Captain Muncaster will propose the toast of "Our Fallen Comrades." Speeches will be delivered by His Worship, Mayor F. E. Osborne, City Solicitor L. W. Brockington and Colonel G. E. Sanders, C.M.G., D.S.O., in connection with the toasts of "Our Empire" and "The Old Battalion."

The president, S. G. Watt, outlined the work done during last year, and spoke in very appreciative terms of the assistance given him by various members. He stated that their lease had another two years to run, and he had endeavored to secure an extension, but nothing definite had as yet resulted. He then took up the matter of fees, and thought it might be necessary to increase these in view of the expense they would be put to this year.

The election of officers resulted in Mr. Watt being re-elected as president, H.W. Chambers vice president, and the re-election of J. C. Clarke as secretary.

After some discussion, fees for the ensuing year were fixed as follows:—Men, $10.00, ladies $1.00, boys $2.50, outside members $5.00.

Pity the Preacher.

A Texas paper comments as follows: "The preacher has a great time. If his hair is gray, he is old. If he is a young man, he hasn't had experience. If he has ten children he has too many. If he has none he is not setting a good example. If his wife sings in the choir, she is presuming; if she doesn't, she isn't interested in her husband's work. If the preacher reads from notes, he is a bore; if he speaks extemporaneously, he isn't deep enough. If he stays at home in his study, he doesn't mix enough with the people; if he is seen around the streets, he ought to be at home getting up a good sermon. If he calls on some poor family, he is playing to the grandstand. If he calls at the home of the well-to-do, he is an aristocrat. Whatever he does, someone could have told him to do better."

Masonic Anniversary.

The twenty-first anniversary of King Hiram Lodge, A.F. and A.M., will be observed to-morrow (Friday) by a special Lodge meeting in the afternoon, followed in the evening by an "At Home" in the Opera House. Airman Holding French Height
Record Will Use Special

Jean Callizo, the French airman who holds the French height record of 41,811 feet, made in France last August, has sailed for India with a special aeroplane to attempt to fly over Mount Everest.

M. Callizo has obtained the permission of the British-Indian authorities to start from land in British territory and the assistance of one of the British air stations has been promised. He will take the plane out with him by sea and fly from Bombay to Simla, from where he will attempt the flight over the world's biggest mountain, which towers 29,062 feet over the Indian plain.

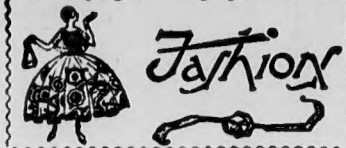

M. Callizo is taking with him a photographer and will make a special effort to obtain photographs of the unexplored top of the mountain which will serve as a guide for any future attempt like the Bruce expedition to reach the summit on foot. He expects to make the flight about the end of May or the beginning of June.

Model Farm Men From British Isles
Come to Canada

Among immigrants landing at Halifax recently were 111 single men who had been trained on a model farm in the British Isles to prepare them for agricultural life in Canada.

Each of the men had been given two pounds to see them through the first few days in the Dominion. It was discovered, however, that the newcomers had spent the money before embarking and they were held by immigration authorities. The difficulty was solved when the British Government cabled the necessary funds to make up the shortage. In future the money will be given to the immigrants when they land.

Could Not Sleep Heart and Nerves Were So Bad

Mr. Geo. Meek, Windsor, Ont., writes:—"I suffered with my heart and nerves and could not sleep at night for noises in my head. I managed to keep at my work somehow, until I began to have dizzy spells which got so bad I could not go to my work. I was afraid to go out any place, for very often I would stagger on my feet, and everything in front of me would turn black and fade away. While I was home sick a friend told me to take I got four boxes and by the time I had used them the pains and noises in my head ceased and I was able to get a good night's rest. Although that was six years ago I have never been troubled with that complaint again."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

APRIL 10

PETER'S LESSON IN TRUST

Golden Text: Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.—Matthew 14:27.

Lesson: Matthew 14:22-33.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 91:1-10.

Explanations and Comments

1. Peter Sees the Power of Jesus, verses 22-27.—After the feeding of the Five Thousand the disciples sympathized with the desire of the multitude to make Jesus King, and were loth to leave the spot until he constrained them. He bade them enter the boat and cross to the other side of the Sea of Galilee while he remained behind to disperse the crowd. When the crowd had departed, Jesus went up the mountain to pray. John tells us that Jesus, perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, withdrew again into the mountain himself alone (John 6:12).

"Jesus was not always going about doing good. He could not; no man can. There comes a time when the doing is worthless and fruitless. No, Jesus was often away getting power, getting virtue and the valor which enabled Him and inspired Him to do good. Sometimes he sent the multitudes away, sometimes he went away from the multitudes. He went, of course, in order to return. But he went, that is the point. He left the plain that in the mountain the drained powers might be renewed and recharged for use in refreshing the plain again."—Alexander McGaffin.

"I watch the Master take His way far up the mount, at break of day, 'Mid nature's quietude to pray; And as I seem to see Him there I hear, with all my load of care, 'He calls thee to the mount of prayer.'"

—John R. Clements.

And when even was come, He was alone.

"When God speaks he likes no other voice to break the stillness but His own, hence the place that has always been given to solitude in all true religious life. It can be overdone, but it can be grossly underdone. And there is no lesson more worth insisting on in days like ours than this: when God wants to speak to a man He wants that man to be alone."—Henry Drummond.

The Increasing U.S. Population

Population Increases About 13,000,000
in Seven Year Period

On July 1 next it is the estimate of the census bureau that the population of the United States will be 118,628,000. This will represent an increase over the 1920 census returns of a trifle short of 13,000,000. Next July 1 will be just three-quarters of the current decade, and if the same ratio of increase be assumed for the last quarter, the census of 1930 should register a population of 123,500,000 with an increase since 1920 of 17,250,000. I will be greater by 3,500,000 than the gain in population between 1910 and 1920 in face of a declining birthrate and the sharp curtailment of immigration. As an offset to these two factors is the decline in mortality statistics.

There was an instant babel of voices, and the rustle of those who, for their various reasons, must attempt the descent rather than remain at La Turbie during the night. Brandon, who had risen from his table, watched Joanna and Kenilworth. He saw that both of them turned immediately toward the foyer where Joanna had left her wrap. Then he slipped out the door and went to the big car in which Antoine awaited.

"As I expected," he said to the Monegasque, "she will not remain. Be ready to pull out when they approach their car. We want not more than two or three cars between us."

When Kenilworth and Joanna came out, many of the cars in the yard had already vanished in the fog, their horns echoing up from the road monotonously. An attendant was ordering departures, insisting upon an interval of two minutes between them. Brandon waited until Joanna, her wrap held close about her, her mask in her hand now, had climbed into the seat beside Kenilworth. Then he touched Antoine's arm, and, at the next signal from the starter, the big car slid away.

In the smaller car Kenilworth remarked grimly: "It'll be a test of nerve, but we'll make it if anyone does." The girl seemed to detect a note of dejection in his tone. She slipped her hand under his arm.

"I'm sorry, Roddy," she said. "You were wonderful, and I am consoled enough to think you meant all that you said. But you just didn't sweep me off my feet as I thought you might. I suppose there must be something old fashioned about me after all. Your arms are awfully comforting, my dear, but I couldn't have the feeling that the thorns would just have to grow on them. I know you think I've treated you rotten, but I couldn't help it. I feel better, for it, too. I'm sure of myself, anyway."

"I don't know," he said, "but what you've got the right idea at that. Better than mine. I almost asked you to marry me, and that's wholly against my principles."

"I'm glad you didn't," she returned. "I'm afraid I might have given in to that."

The starter appeared at their running board and asked them to proceed. They crept noiselessly out of the parking yard. Until they came to the first turn, some sixty yards away, the flickering lights from the club house aided them. Then, when they had swerved sharply to the left they were wrapped in wet, almost impenetrable obscurity. Ahead they could see only the faint glimmer of their own headlights.

Twice they bumped into cars stalled at the inner side of the road. Each time they were called out by members of a party going back about—even women in fragile slippers and delicate gowns already soggy from the damp—rather than fight the descent any longer.

The red car nosing downward at a snail's pace, struck a stump. "It was foolish of me to let you attempt to go down," Joanna declared. "Before we are too far away we must walk back. The car will be as safe at the side of the road as are the others being abandoned."

"If we have to walk," Kenilworth replied firmly, "it will be straight ahead. I'll get you down if I have to carry you."

"But it's utter folly!" she protested. At that moment another group, two women and a man stumbled by them, feeling their way back to the summit. "See," she exclaimed, there are more who have given it up. We can walk back, dry out and wait for daylight. People below will understand."

He stubbornly negotiated another corner. When the car was crawling again he spoke, grimly.

"There isn't enough charity in the whole world—in the part of it you and I inhabit—to make room for any sort of decent understanding of how a pretty woman might be caught and remain till daylight on La Turbie. You can stand a mysterious escape in the night with Prince Michael, but not with me in the mist at a mountain top club house where you have to wear a mask to save your face. Some could; with some it wouldn't matter; you couldn't and you count."

She bit her lip, and was silent. With a petulant gesture she brushed away the moisture that hung in great, glittering beads on her eyelashes. Suddenly she was startled by a light that appeared weirdly in the middle of the road almost at their front wheels, waving slowly to the right and left. "Somebody smashed I suppose," Kenilworth muttered and, jamming in his brakes, brought the car to a stop. Heavy, forbidding faces emerged from the fog on either side of them. Joanna cried out, Kenilworth with an oath, lunged across at the head of a man who reached in to her, but his arms were seized in an iron grip and twisted dexterously behind him. A guttural voice, speaking a mixture of Monegasque and French, commanded:

"Monsieur and Mademoiselle will be good enough to step from the car!" "Like—!" Kenilworth exclaimed, and struggled, but the grip on his arms left him powerless. The lantern was brought closer. By its pale light they saw that a dozen men surrounded the car and that firearms gleamed dully in their hands.

After her first cry of alarm Joanna sat rigid. Something of her fright shone in her eyes, and Kenilworth was conscious that her face was pale. Otherwise she gave no sign. The gruff voice of the leader of the evil crew was heard again:

"It was ordered that you both descend. We have not great patience. The mademoiselle need not fear."

Kenilworth advised Joanna to step out quietly. "We must go through it, I suppose," he grumbled. "They probably will rob us with a thousand pardons and then politely let us go. These mountain brigands are thorough gentlemen as a rule."

The one who had been holding on to Joanna's wrists released them when she was in the road. She ran around the car to Kenilworth's side and from this position glared defiantly at the footpads who surrounded them. One of them caught the red sparkle of the enormous ruby that lay against her throat, from which her wrap had fallen. She instinctively flung up her hand to cover it. The bandit smiled and bowed gallantly. "A pretty thing, mademoiselle," he said in the native patois, "Mademoiselle's neck does not require such an ornament however!"

Kenilworth cursed at him, which only brought another ironic bow. The men closed in around the pair and they were ordered to walk with them. They were marched off the road past a hut which Kenilworth recognized as the one before which the big car ahead of them for the first portion of their ascent, had stopped and dropped behind them. Behind the hut they entered a cluster of pine trees and then crossed an open space of soggy brush stub. A low barn-like building loomed out of the mist before them, and they were ushered through a narrow door.

Inside the building was a startling scene. In the dim light shed by a dozen lanterns placed about the earthen floor they saw half a dozen men and women whose costumes and dominos proved to have been revealed at the club house, lined up against the walls, the men standing stiffly at one side, their hands bound behind them, women in an excited group. Armed ruffians guarded the women at one side, and the sullen men at the other. Kenilworth was ordered to take his place among the men. For a brief moment he gave a sign of attempting fight, but Joanna murmured a reassuring word to him and without awaiting the command from their captors, moved over to join the group of women.

As Kenilworth had prophesied, the bandits robbed their victims with profuse apologies uttered in their guttural tones. They seemed however, to be strangely inefficient in their plundering. The man whose hands explored Kenilworth's inner pockets did not discover his wallet, in which was a sizeable sheaf of bank notes, nor his platinum and diamond studded watch in the watch pocket beneath his waistcoat. A few gold louis, and an English pound note in his change pocket was confiscated. His pearl dress studs were not noted. Curiously, he observed that the other robbers, relieving the other men of obvious valuables, ignored costly pearl studs. On the lapel of one victim, a

"For five years I was in misery. My whole system seemed out of gear, but my stomach troubled most. Even a drink of cold water would cause my stomach to bloat and swell abnormally. Gas would prevent me from sleeping at night so that I had to get up and walk the floor for hours. Violent stomach pains nearly drove me wild. I've seen times when I was doubled over, unable to straighten up. "My friend M. Laporte told me how Tanlac had helped him out of similar trouble, so I got some and used 9 bottles in all. A GOOD MEDICINE FOR SPRING TIME

Do Not Use Harsh Purgatives—
—A Tonic is All You Need

Not sick—but not feeling quite well. That is the way most people feel in the spring. Easily tired, appetite fickle, sometimes headaches and a feeling of depression. Pimples or eruptions may appear on the skin, or there may be twinges of rheumatism or neuralgia. Any of these indicate that the blood is out of order—that the indoor life of winter has left its mark upon you and may easily develop into more serious trouble.

Do not dose yourself with purgatives, as many people do, in the hope that you can put your blood right. Purgatives gallop through the system and weaken instead of giving strength. Any doctor will tell you this is true. What you need in the spring is a tonic that will enrich the blood and build up the nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do this speedily and surely. Every dose of this medicine helps to enrich the blood which clears the skin, strengthens the appetite and makes tired, depressed men, women and children active and strong. Mr. James Dickson, West-neath, Ont., says:—"I was quite badly run down, easily tired, and appetite poor. My blood seemed thin and watery. I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after taking a few boxes I felt myself thoroughly built up and as strong as ever. I can recommend the pills to run-down people."

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mystery of the Towers

Built in England During the War But Were Never Used

The mystery of two huge towers, built on the south coast of England during the war and never used, has been cleared up.

The towers, 80 feet high and built at a cost of approximately $5,000,000 each, were to be the forerunners of many similar ones for the defence of the English Channel.

They were to be towed out to sea and strung together across the Straits of Dover, linked together at distances of a few hundred yards with nets and heavily fortified with guns. In the top of each a powerful searchlight was to be placed.

The armistice, however, made it unnecessary to continue the scheme and the towers were anchored off Shoreham for some years. One has been broken up and the other is used as a lightship off Spithead.

According to Sir W. Arbuthnot Lane noted British surgeon, fair-haired persons are more able to fight against disease than dark-haired ones.

Not Always a Good Rule

The idea that a man is as old as his birthdays is one that is fast disappearing. There are too many eminent men beyond the psalmist's span to hold to such a principle. Birthdays, alone, are poor way to judge a man or a woman. Many men of ripe years are also of ripe intellect and judgment, while many men and women never reach that stage.

It is suggested that judges be compulsorily retired when they have reached the age of seventy-five years. That does not seem to be a good rule. A judge, particularly may have gained a wide outlook in his service which would be missed on the bench.

The worms that infest children from their birth are of two kinds, those that find lodgement in the stomach and those that are found in the intestines. The latter are the most destructive, as they cling to the walls of the intestines and if not interfered with work havoc there. Miller's Worm Powders dislodge both kinds and while expelling them from the system serve to repair the damage they have caused.

Little Helps For This Week

If ye love Me, keep My commandments.—John xiv. 15.

Do as thou wouldst be done unto; Love God, and love thy neighbor; watch and pray.

These are the words and works of life; this do, And live; who doth not this hath lost heaven's way.

—Henry Vaughan.

When a man is told that the whole of religion and morality is summed up in the two commandments,—to love God and to love our neighbor, he is ready to cry, like Charaba in Gebir, at the first sight of the sea, "Is this the mighty ocean? Is this all?" Yes, all; but how small a part of it do your eyes survey! Only trust yourself to it, launch out upon it call abroad over it, you will find it has no end; it will carry you round the world.
—Julius Hare.

After the address the names of the confirmants will be read. While a cordial invitation is extended to all, the confirmants of St. Paul's especially are invited to attend.

The evening service marks the last of the special Lenten services of the year. The last momentous hour in the passion of Christ, the hour that He forsaken of His God spent in the depths of woe, in damnation itself, will be the subject of the discussion. In that hour He cried out "My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me."

CAMBRIDGE DEFEATS OXFORD IN BOAT RACE

PUTNEY, England, April 2.—Cambridge University won the 79th Oxford-Cambridge boat race by four lengths over the four and a quarter mile course from Putney to Mortlake on the Thames this afternoon.

The time was 20 minutes 16 seconds, against the record of 18 minutes, 25 seconds, made by Oxford in 1911. The race was rowed under ideal conditions, and the banks of the river were lined with huge crowds.

The result gave Cambridge 38 victories since the series started in 1829, as against 40 for Oxford. The classic has been an annual affair since 1841, with the exception of the war years. In 1877 the crews rowed a dead heat. In 1912 two races were held because both shells sank in rough water during the first attempt.

The race began at 1.44 p.m., Cambridge stroking 38 against Oxford's 30, jumped into a slight lead. At the mile, Cambridge was still slightly ahead but it had been nip and tuck, Oxford overtaking the light blues after a quarter of a mile and taking the lead for a bit.

The second mile was also a ding-dong affair, and Oxford led by a half length as the marker was passed. The crews were even at the end of three miles. They were almost to the finish when Cambridge pulled away and won by four lengths.

Red Deer is to be the site of the most powerful broadcasting station in the Dominion, according to correspondence reaching that city. Mr. W. W. Grant, who intended to move to Red Deer his late Calgary plant, changed his mind, but has been given the contract to erect a plant of three times the power, costing in the neighborhood of $45,000. The company who are behind this, who did not want their names mentioned at present, told Mr. Grant they were not asking for any concessions from the city, but they want a 25-year lease of the site, instead of the 10-year lease proposed at the recent special meeting of the Council. The Kelly Electric Co. have received instructions to get timbers for the tower, which will be from 120 to 160 feet in height.
